

Town House Motel Sale Provides Full Circle Handshake for Brown Nester Hospitality Services

(WESTLAKE VILLAGE, CA, March 25, 2016) – Everything in life has a way of coming full circle, if you just give it enough time.

Josh Nester, vice president of sales for Brown Nester Hospitality Services, realized this recently when he finished what his great grandfather started nearly 50 years ago.

In 1967, David Brown, president of Brown Motel Investments, represented Vera and Ottice Dulin in the purchase of the Town House Motel located in downtown Bishop, CA, a small town that to this day continues to attract visitors from around the world who enjoy the town's beautiful scenery, festivals and hiking trails.

"Once a guest, always a friend," is the hotel's motto and a testament that extends to the long-lasting relationship between the Dulins and Brown Nester families.

"Our families have kept in touch over the years and when Mrs. Dulin decided to sell the motel, she said there was no one else she wanted to represent her than Brown Nester," said Josh Nester, fourth generation member of Brown Nester Hospitality Services. "It was an honor to be able to carry on what my great grandfather began so many years ago."

Since its inception in 1948, Brown Nester Hospitality Services has represented thousands of clients in all sizes and transactions ranging from small roadside motels to large full service hotel facilities. Careful attention is paid to each transaction, large or small. The company prides itself on the number of clients who return again and again.

"The Town House Motel is a great reminder that, at the end of the day, it's the personal relationships and friendships that we make throughout the years that matter most," said Nester.
